

Questions for Discussion

- You conduct a criminal history check which reveals a DWI conviction from 3 years ago. Do you admit this person?
- You operate an FGP program. A criminal history check discloses three (3) out-of-state petty larceny convictions 35 years ago. Do you admit this person?
- For your program, can you think of an offense or category of offenses that would automatically disqualify an individual from serving?
- As part of the application, an individual discloses an arrest for disorderly conduct the previous month. Do you admit this individual?
- Who should have the final say in the selection of a volunteer? The sponsor or the volunteer station?
- You have been asked to design your program's reference checks. The only "catch" is that you are limited to three questions. What are they?