

Partnership Readiness Worksheet

Use this worksheet to help you think about your program and how partnerships can help your program succeed.

Understanding Your Program

What are the goals of your service program?

Are you able to meet those goals currently? Why or why not?

How do you want to expand the work you do in the community?

What types of volunteer projects do you want to undertake? How do you want to leverage additional volunteers through your program?

Partnership Readiness Worksheet

How can community partner organizations help you enhance your current work, take on new volunteer projects, and accomplish your goals?

Defining Partnership Needs

What are some of the resources your program will need that might not be available within your organization? These could be material resources, specific skills, access to certain individuals, visibility, volunteer generation, member placement sites, match, etc.

Identifying Your Resources

What resources you can offer a partner organization? Consider material resources, specific skills, access to certain individuals, visibility, volunteer generation, etc.

Originally published through cooperative agreement #05TAHGA001. Updated by HandsOn Network March 2010.