

Resource Center Online Learning Center

What is it?

The Online Learning Center is a free interactive web-based learning environment created specifically to help national and community service programs like yours succeed and thrive.

Program directors, staff, and volunteers can learn from our easy-to-use self-paced or instructor-led courses in a non-graded and private online space. Simply create your own user ID and password and get started — take one course or take them all, and come back whenever you'd like to see what's new.

Why should I take a look?

Our growing catalog of e-courses covers a broad range of topics guided by the initiative areas of the Corporation for National and Community Service. Courses are authored by subject matter experts in the field of national service — training and technical assistance providers funded by the Corporation.

You'll find courses related to:

- Community engagement and strengthening
- Disaster preparedness
- Educational success and mentoring
- Faith-based and community initiatives
- Financial and grants management
- Disability inclusion
- Participant recruitment and development
- Performance measurement
- Resource and fund development
- Technology
- Volunteer leveraging

Come learn with us!

Visit www.nationalserviceresources.org/online-courses.